

Churches Practicing Redemption

Developing an Effective Response to Homosexuality

A Ministry Event to Equip Pastors, Ministers, and Leaders with resources to address same-sex issues and to answer the questions:

How do we uphold Biblical Truth, not condone sin and effectively address homosexuality?

How do we speak the truth in love to those with opposing viewpoints?

Speakers:

Bob Stith is the National Strategist for Gender Issues for the Southern Baptist Convention and has been involved with this area of ministry for 15 years. He also serves as chairman of the board for Living Hope Ministries in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and the board of directors for Exodus International. He served as pastor of Carroll Baptist Church in Southlake, TX for 37 years prior to his current position.

Alan Chambers is one of the nation's leading speakers on homosexuality and is the president of Exodus International — the largest evangelical organization dealing with this topic in the world today. Alan's personal story as a teen and young adult who struggled with and overcame unwanted same-sex attraction has inspired audiences around the world. He offers unique insight into how homosexuality affects individuals, families and the culture at large.

Melanie Spinks has been involved in ministry to those who deal with homosexuality since 1998. She has a testimony of overcoming and is passionate about equipping the church in how to respond. She holds a MA in Biblical studies from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and an MFA in Visual Art from Georgia State.
